Feast of the Holy Family

What a beautiful feast to follow Christmas, the Feast of the Holy Family, because at Christmas, we have spent a good deal focusing on the gift and value of family life. So let us not take down family priority and concern with the Christmas decorations, and say that is it for another year. I often think that when it comes to making new year resolutions, it should concern family life and how to better it and enjoy it.

At least this is a day to be thankful for your families. Even though your family may not be perfect - who's is - today is a day to pray for a closer love between you all. And may the gifts of prayer be more a part of your family life as we soon enter 2019. When you see families in love with one another, you see life at its best, with that strong love overcoming conflict and division. Through such family love, life then becomes more the celebration it is meant to be. May that celebration be a part of your family life always.

Prayer for Oblate Vocations

Holy Father,

We come to you because Jesus asked us to pray that you send workers into your harvest.

Therefore, send us generous young men, passionate for Jesus, willing to make of their whole life a total oblation to you, to become close to the poorest and most abandoned, and to proclaim the Gospel.

May they burn with the same fire that you enkindled in Saint Eugene; may they come to be part of his family and, with all the Oblates, may they continue the work of Redemption.

Mary Immaculate, who first gave Jesus to the world, be with us as we pray.

Amen
