

The Parish of St Patrick's Basilica is committed to creating a safe parish.

The Archdiocese Safeguarding Project was started in 2016 by Archbishop Timothy Costello with the aim to provide a safe and secure environment for all its members, leaders and especially children and vulnerable adults. It recognises that safeguarding is a shared responsibility and strives to implement into all parishes the National Safeguarding Standards which consist of policies and practices.

More information about safeguarding is available here.

The parish of St Patrick's Basilica is committed to creating a safe parish. Two Safeguarding Officers have been appointed. They are trained to be the first point of contact for any concerns of abuse or safety risks. Any information given in confidence will be passed on to the Safeguarding Project Coordinator of the Archdiocese to be dealt with professionally and confidentially. The parish Safeguarding Officers are Mary Davis and Lynn Tomlinson. They can be contacted through the Parish Office or on the phone numbers listed below.
